GFRAS-YPARD CALL FOR STORIES

HOW ARE THE LOCAL AGRICULTURAL SECTOR AND RURAL ADVISORY SERVICES COPING WITH COVID-19

We are looking for novel stories on local solutions that enable the agricultural sector to ensure food security and keep value chains functioning under the current partial or full lockdown of society. We would especially encourage young people to share local success stories.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE? CONTRIBUTE BY SUBMITTING BY MAY 10TH:

Between 500-700 words, not previously published elsewhere. Any references made must be credited and noted. Between 2-4 photos with captions illustrating what is written in the text should be included. Not submitting photos will give a lower score.

A video
Between 60 and 120 seconds long, not previously posted elsewhere. Submissions exceeding 120 seconds (or 2 minutes) may be disqualified. Videos must be uploaded as one single file in the highest quality.

Entries from Malawi & Kenya must be submitted via wetransfer.com to andiraso@afaas-africa.net and ingrid.oliveira@g-fras.org alongside the name, country, and copy of ID of entrants submitted.
